Gambero Rosso Live in Zürich

Gambero Rosso Vini d'Italia Tour comes back to Switzerland with a super selection of Italy's most awarded wineries in the 2019 guide. The event, in cooperation with Vinum, is scheduled on Thursday May 9 in Zürich, in the prestigious Kameha Grand Zürich in Dufaux-Strasse 1. The walk around tasting will take place at 3 p.m. for professionals and at 4:30 p.m. to the public.

Vini d'Italia Tour gives a focus on production that has an appealing price/quality rapport, the pride of the Italian production panorama, those wineries that manage to express a cultural patrimony unmatched elsewhere in the world. Switzerland is the fourth world market for Italian wine and it has shown an incredible interest on the thousand typical grape varieties which make the Italian wine scene so exciting. After Zürich the Vini d'Italia tour will stop in Atlanta on June 10, moving two days later to San Diego for the first time.

Founded in 2010, Vini del Piemonte is a consortium which includes about 200 wineries from all the areas of Piedmont. I Vini del Piemonte aims to promote and give value to the incredible heritage of grapes, skills and terroirs which make Piedmont the first wine destination in Italy. During the event, the consortium, formed by the producers themselves, will prepare a corner with an extensive selection of boutique and traditional wineries for a journey into the heart and spirit of the region.

PRESS RELEASE

About Vini d'Italia 2019

The 2019 edition reviews 2,485 wineries and a total of 22,000 wines, awarding the classic scores ranging from 1 to 3 Glasses according to the quality of the label. This year, 447 Tre Bicchieri have emerged: Tuscany leads the way with 85 awards, followed by Piedmont and Veneto. At the same time Southern Italy is surging in terms of quality and awards. Vini d'Italia is not just a collection of scores and ratings, it's a fundamental and essential volume for all those who work in the sector or are interested in quality Italian wines.

About Top Italian Restaurants

Competitive, identitarian, increasingly proud in bringing its regional recipes to the table, and its simplest and most rustic profile, even in luxury settings. So the recipe for Neapolitan scarpariello finds its place in the major hotels in Hong Kong, the taste of Roman tripe marries Scandinavian wine cellars, Agerola fior di latte rests on increasingly good Neapolitan pizzas in New York. There are 5 million Italians living abroad, 100 thousand locals who refer to our traditions. In the Top Italian Restaurants guide we have selected 500: places managed by professionals, offering above all true Italian flavor. One made of products that speak of the production area, of who we are, and how we live. These are often stories of courage, chefs, pizza makers and sommeliers seeking something more. And success stories. Available for free:
